Sex Offender and one of Rhode Island Most Wanted arrested by Central Falls police:

CENTRAL FALLS – Central Falls Detectives arrested a 26-year-old man wanted on several warrants and identified as one of Rhode Island’s Most Wanted on its website.

Detectives received information that fugitive, Ishmael Lee, was staying in Central Falls and after a brief investigation it was confirmed Lee was wanted since December 2016 and posted on Rhode Island’s Most Wanted for sex offender address change violations by the Cranston Police Department.

Detectives were able to track Lee to an apartment on Madison Avenue in the City of Central Falls and take him into custody without incident. Lee was charged with two Superior Court warrants along with the Cranston Police warrant for sex offender address change violations.

Lee was processed and transported to the ACI where he will be held until his arraignment.
