CF Juvenile Arrested for Threats to Public Officials:

Central Falls – On September 17, 2015 Central Falls police detectives executed an arrest warrant, and search warrant, at 128 Illinois Street second floor. The target of the investigation was a 16 year old male who resides at the dwelling.

The suspect in question had become a target of an investigation involving a picture posted of him with a .380 caliber handgun and hollow point ammunition on the social media site Snapchat. He also indicated in text a threat that he would do harm to police officers.

The target was located and arrested without incident, and transported to the Central Falls Police Station for processing. A search of the subject's apartment did not yield the firearm.

He was arraigned this morning at Family Court in Providence on the charge of threats made to public officials and was ordered held at the Rhode Island Training School until a future court hearing.
