Prostitution Sting Nets Five Arrest:

CENTRAL FALLS – Members of the Central Falls Police Department’s Special Investigative Unit (SIU) and Detective Bureau conducted an undercover prostitution operation yesterday evening throughout the city of Central Falls.

During the operation, two undercover male officers from outside agencies were positioned in known high-traffic areas and posed as potential “johns”.

While travelling in their designated zones, the male officers were solicited for indecent acts for exchange for money by four separate females with previous prostitution convictions. The fifth female was arrested on warrants for miscellaneous offenses.

The identities of the arrestees cannot be released until their scheduled arraignments for the charge of Loitering for Indecent Purposes – Prostitution.
